

Jake Salm

Jake Salm joined the team here at FRC in January of 2018 and instructs multiple classes including First Time Shooter, Introduction to Optics, AR 15, and others. His skills as an instructor were developed during his 5 years with the United States Marine Corps where he served with 3rd MEU as a Battalion and then Force Reconnaissance Marine. After several years stationed overseas, he returned to the States and is now attending LSU's School of architecture. Jake is a true professional with a passion for excellence.
